TRIPOLI, September 3.

THE Treaties of Peace and Commerce between this Regency and the Courts of Naples and Stockholm are not only concluded but ratify'd: and the Swediſh Conſul has made a Preſent to the Bey from his Maſter of four Gold Watches, two of them adorn'd with Diamonds, ſeveral Pieces of Plate, beſides Porcellane, Woollen Stuffs of divers Sorts, 30 Iron Cannon, 1000 Bullets, 100 Barrels of Powder, and a Cheſt of Swords, Cutlaſſes, Piſtols, and other Arms.

NAPLES, Sept. 12, N. S.

Extract of a Letter from Presburgh, dated Sept. 14. N. S.

" Three Days ago the Queen having ſent for the Four Orders that compoſe the States of the Kingdom of Hungary, ſhe made a Latin Speech to them, with ſuch a Dignity and Courage at the ſame Time, as won the Hearts of every one preſent. 'The Perplexing Situation I am now in, ſaid ſhe, by Permiſſion of the Divine Providence, is attended with ſuch dangerous Circumſtances that I cannot hope to extricate myſelf out of it without ſome Aſſiſtance, which muſt be both powerful and ſpeedy. Being abandon'd by my Friends, perſecuted by my Enemies, and atack'd by my neareſt Kindred, I have no Reſource left but to remain in this Kingdom, and there to commit my Perſon, Children, Sceptre and Crown, to the Protection of my faithful Subjects. I make no Scruple to truſt them with my All; and ſuch is their Loyalty and Bravery, that they leave me no manner of Doubt but they will make uſe of their Forces to defend me and themſelves ſpeedily and manfully, in this melancholy Juncture of Affairs. This Speech drew Tears from the whole Aſſembly, who cry'd out one and all, We will ſtand by our Queen; We will defend her againſt her Enemies; We will ſacrifice our Eſtates, and even our Lives for her. The States have reſolv'd in the mean Time to publiſh a Manifeſto againſt the Elector of Bavaria, and to eſtabliſh a perpetual Law, for excluding that Prince and his Family forever from the Crown of Hungary.

Montpelier, Sept. 20. N. S. On the 19th at Night, there was a perfect Deluge in a Part of this Province, occaſion'd by a Storm, which laſted about 24 Hours; but the River Garon was ſo ſwell'd by the Waters that pour'd into it from all Parts, that there was 20 Foot Water in the Town of Alis on its Banks, by which ſeveral Houſes were waſh'd away, all the Merchandize and Goods with a great Number of Cattle loſt, and abundance of People bury'd under the Ruins of Houſes; and all the Places over which the Waters paſs'd are cover'd four Inches thick with Pebbles and Mud. Two other Towns along that River have ſuffer'd the ſame Fate, as has the Town of St. Ambroiſe, by the Overflowing of the River Abeche, toward Uſez, ſo that the Loſs is computed at two Millions of Livres.

Whitehall, Sept. 24. Capt. Ambroſe, Commander of his Majeſty's Ship Rupert, writes Word, that as he was cruiſing off Cape Machiacca, on the 11th Inſtant in the Evening, he ſaw a Sail from the Windward, which he chaſed all that Night and the next Day, and about Eleven at Night came up with her, and after ſome Reſiſtance, (the Rupert not being able to open her lower Tier of Guns, by Reaſon of a great Sea) took her. She is the largeſt Privateer belonging to St. Sebaſtians, called the Duke de Vendoſme, of 26 Carriage Guns, and 202 Men, the Captain is one Don Martin de Areneder. a Frenchman, and moſt of her Crew of Foreign Nations; there were 19 Engliſh, Scotch and Iriſh on board, who ſay, they were taken out of Priſon, and forced by the Intendant to proceed on the Cruize. The Captain of the Prize and 29 Men were kill'd, and 20 ſo wounded that few of them can recover. The Rupert had but one Man killed, another his Hand ſhot off, and 3 ſlightly wounded. The Prize is a new Ship from the Stocks, of the Dimenſion of our 20 Gun Frigates, had been but three Days out of Port, and was compleatly fitted with a great Quantity of Small Arms, Cutlaſſes, and Pole Axes, all new. She ſails exceeding well, Capt. Ambroſe having chaſed her 218 Miles before he came up with her. Three Days before, Capt. Ambroſe chaſed another Privateer off St. Sebaſtians, called (as he hath ſince been inform'd) the Cormo, of 18 Guns, and 200 Men, but by flinging over her Guns, Boats, Water-Casks, Proviſion and Lumber, and by the Favour of a dark Night, ſhe eſcap'd. Capt. Ambroſe ranging along the Coaſt of France in his Return, met with an Iriſh Brigantine, from the Weſt Part of Ireland, laden with Wool, and bound to Nantz, which he ſeized, and has brought her, with the other Prize into Portſmouth.

Yeſterday Sir Robert Godſchall, Knt. Alderman, was choſen Lord Mayor of this City for the Year enſuing.

They write from Madeira of the 18th of Sept. N. S. that his Majeſty's Ship Succeſs, Capt. Thompſon, arriv'd there the 2d, with a large French Ship of 300 Tons, laden with Sugar, Cochineal, Cocoa, &c. ſhe had 180,000 Dollars, 60 Bars of Gold and Silver, ſome Caſes directed to Don Blaſs, &c. from which 'tis concluded his Treaſure was on board The ſecond Captain's Journal was found, by which it appears, ſhe was laden and unladen at the Havanah. They declar'd they came from Cape Francois, but could ſhow no Clearance from thence, and at length acknowledg'd that Part of the Cargo was the Property of the Spaniards. Capt. Thomſon ſail'd the 10th of September, for Boſton in New-England with his Prize, and 'tis believ'd he would meet with no Difficulty in condemning her: All the Letters from Madeira ſay ſhe is the richeſt Ship taken ſince the War.

London, October 1. We hear that Capt. Thompſon who took the rich Regiſter-ſhip, will have for his Share of the ſaid Prize upwards of 60,000 £. his two Lieutenants 20,000 £ each, and ſo in Proportion to his other Officers; and that all the common Sailors will have at leaſt 500 l. a piece.

Prague, Sept. 24. It ſeems that the Storm which threaten'd Vienna is to burſt upon this City; however, we hope to give the Enemy Trouble enough, if they don't begin with us very quickly. Yeſterday 17 Companies of Seckendorff's Regiment, and 150 Men of Wenceſlas Walli's Regiment, who had been taken Priſoners by the Pruſſians, arriv'd here to reinforce our Garriſon.

London, Octo. 2. Letters from Portſmouth ſay, that Sir John Norris, in the Victory, Ad. Cavendiſh in the St. George, with the Royal George, Royal Sovereign, Barfleur, Neptune, Sandwich, Naſſau, Buckingham, Newcaſtle, Port-Mahon, Sutherland, Hoſpital-ſhip, Scipio, and Fire-ſhips, ſail'd laſt Friday Morning from Spithead.

Octob. 8. The Spaniſh Fleet at Cadiz, we hear, are in great Diſtreſs, and not fit to undertake any Enterprize; but if they were, 'tis thought they would not venture out of their Harbour, being cloſely watch'd by Admiral Haddock, who has under his Command two Ships of 80, one of 70, four of 50, two of 40, and two of 20 Guns, beſides Bombs and Fire Ships.

A Scheme is form'd, and is to be executed, of raiſing a Marine Arſenal, or Magazine, at Jamaica, for the future to be kept conſtantly ſupply'd, as well in Times of Peace as War, with all ſorts of Naval Stores, to enable our Ships readily to oppoſe any Deſigns of an Enemy, or to execute any Projects that may be form'd for the Encreaſe or Advantage of Trade and Commerce.

Octob. 16. The Account of the Bravery of the Commander of the Duke of Vendoſme Privateer, lately taken by the Rupert, is moſt ſurprizing; who, tho' near 80 Years of Age, after he had loſt an Arm by a Shot from the Rupert, careleſs of his Wound, continued cheering his Men, aſſur'd them that the Enemy was but a 20 Gun Ship, and that they ſhould ſoon make them ſick of the Work, and the like. And even after a ſecond Ball had taken part of his Belly away, and left his Bowels out, with his one Arm he held himſelf up by the Rigging, and heartned his Crew, who fought deſperately for near half an Hour, 'till he dropp'd, and then they ſtruck inſtantly.

Octob. 17. On Tueſday Evening Sir John Norris paſs'd by Plymouth with the Grand Fleet under his Convoy.

From the Camp at Ips in Middle Auſtria, Octob. 9. N.S.

Tho' we are at preſent but ten Leagues from Vienna, yet our Generals don't ſeem ſo much inclin'd to attack that City, as to penetrate into the Kingdom of Bohemia; which we believe will be attended with no great Difficulty, all the Auſtrain Forces being turn'd towards Vienna. The Saxons, who continue their March, are to go into Moravia to take Poſſeſſion of that Country; during which the Elector of Bavaria is to advance to Prague, to be crown'd King of Bohemia; and at the ſame time a Body of reſerve is to form the Siege of Egra. On the 2d, when the Elector of Bavaria receiv'd the Oath of Fidelity from the Officers of the Magiſtracy and Militia at Lintz, there were ſeveral Diſcharges from 60 great Guns there, and extraordinary Marks of Joy. The Count de Saxe arriving at Ambſtelen, and finding a Troop of Huſſar Dragoons and Auſtrian Horſe there, he ſent 50 of his own Huſſars, and as many Dragoons, with Orders to attack them, tho' they were much ſuperior in Number; when after half an Hour's Engagement, during which 25 of the Enemy were taken Priſoners, they fled, and abandon'd 23 of their Horſes. We hear ſince, that ſuch was their Conſternation, that they fled even to the Gates of Vienna.

Extract of a Letter from Paris, Octo. 29.

'The Neutrality for the Electorate of Hanover being 'concluded, Baron Hardenberg is preparing to return 'home. We ſtill talk of an approaching Peace between 'Spain and England, and it is not doubted but that the 'Negociations for that Purpoſe will be ſet on foot after 'the King of Great Britain's Return to London.

Extract of two Letters from Gallaway and Loughrea, in Ireland, September 22.

"Several People were barbarouſly murder'd laſt Saturday Night at a Gentleman's Houſe about three Miles from Tuam, in a lonely Place, by the Gentleman's own Son and three or four Ruffians; the Gentleman's Name was Oliver Bodkin, Brother to the late Counſellor John Bodkin, of Carrowbegg: He married a ſecond Wife, by whom he had a Son of about ſeven Years of Age, which chiefly tempted the Murderer to commit this horrid Parricide and Murders. The Son's Name is John Bodkin, about 26 Years of Age. They enter'd the Houſe in the dead Time of the Night, and murder'd the Father, Wife and Son; Mr. Mark Lynch, a Gentleman related to the Family, that went to the Races and lay there that Night; three Maid-ſervants in the Houſe, and four Men-ſervants in the Barn, in all eleven Perſons. They ſtabb'd them in ſeveral Places, and cut their Throats from Ear to Ear. Mr. Lynch was cut open from his Breaſt to the bottom of his Belly like a Sheep; the Wife was ripp'd open, and Child's Head cut off upon the Father's Breaſt; ſome had their Brains knock'd out, and no one left to tell the horrid Tale; they kill'd even the Dogs and Cats. 'Tis now ſuſpected that another Brother of this John Bodkin, who it was ſaid died ſuddenly ſome time ſince, was murdered by him.

The young Man and his Father had a Miſunderſtanding for three Months paſt, and the Father about ten Days ſince wrote to the Lord Athunry, that he was afraid his Son would do him ſome Miſchief; and when his Lordſhip heard of the Murders, he immediately ſecur'd the Son, who confeſs'd the whole Affair."

Dublin, Octo. 3. John Bodkin who was concern'd in the barbarous Murder of his Father, Mother, Brother, and the reſt of the Family, being 11 in all, made his Eſcape but is ſince taken: He was found with an old Hat on, and in the Shepherd's Cloaths, to whom he had given his lac'd Hat and Cloaths with Plate Buttons. When examin'd by the Lord Athunry, he denied he had any Hand in his Brother's Murder, and that he fled for fear of being loaded with Irons in Goal; that he believed his Brother died of a Surfeit of Pork, and drinking Butter Milk after it, which was the Supper he eat at his Uncle Oliver's Houſe, there being nothing elſe to be got. We hear further, that Redmond Bourk of Clonevadoge, Horſe Rider, one of the Murderers that was eſcap'd, was taken by a Conſtable and four Men laſt Saturday, and brought to Tuam. As to further Particulars, culars, John Bodkin being aſk'd how he got into his Father's Houſe? ſaid, 'The old rotten Door was eaſily forced; that he had attempted ſome time before to poiſon his Mother-in-Law with Nux Vomica, but it had no Effect; that Dominick Lynch was the Perſon who murdered her, and ripp'd her up near the Street Door, when ſhe was attempting to eſcape; and that he, Dominick, alſo ripp'd up Mr. Lynch, and cut off the Child's Head; that the Shepherd, who thought to have ſav'd the Child being his Foſter-Father, had ſmear'd him with Blood, and had laid him near his Father as if he was dead; but that Dominick afterwards killed him; and that the Shepherd was taken in his own Houſe.

We are inform'd that the Aſſizes of Galway will be held next Monday, according to Adjournment, when 'tis ſaid the Perſons concern'd in the barbarous and atrocious Murder of Mr. Bodkin and his Family, will take their Trials.

BOSTON, Nov. 30.

Extract of a Letter from Benjamin Norton, Commander of a Privateer from Rhode-Iſland, dated at New-Providence, Auguſt 31*ſt.* 1741.

'I Don't doubt but you have receiv'd mine by the 'Way of So. Carolina, which acquainted you of an 'unfortunate Accident that happened to us by Thunder, 'having ſplit our Maſt, and broke through both our 'Sides, and ſhould have infallibly ſunk, had it not been 'for the kind Aſſiſtance of Capt. Frankland's Men, 'Commander of the Roſe Man of War.---

By another Letter from Capt Norton, dated at Sea the 4th of October, we have a particular Account of his taking a Spaniſh Privateer on the 26*th of* September, (lately mentioned in this Paper) after which he ſays.

'His Name is Don Franciſco Larango, and by all 'Report, tho' an Enemy, endued with a great deal of 'Clemency, and uſing his Priſoners with Humanity; 'the like Uſage he meets with on board, for he juſtly 'deſerves it. We are ſtill cruiſing on the North Side of 'Cuba, and are in Hopes of getting ſomething worth 'while in a ſhort Time. Since my laſt we have had an 'Opportunity to go into a Harbour, and have dryed 'moſt of the Goods; the Negro Boy mentioned in my 'laſt, and one of the Priſoners that was wounded in the 'Engagement are ſince dead. The Number of Priſo-'ners that was on board were 48, 24 are landed, 10 'ran away, 2 are dead 7 Negroes and 3 Spaniards are 'on board, 2 Engliſh Men were taken on board, one 'of which is put on board a Man of War.

'Veſſels taken by Don Franciſco in his firſt Cruiſe;

'A Scooner loaded with Lumber, which he burnt.

'A Sloop, --- Capt. Stockings, with Horſes and 'Lumber, bound to Martineco, which we retook.

'Pink Pataxon, John Shaw, bound to London from 'Maryland, loaded with Tobacco.

'A Whale-Man, which he gave to 40 Priſoners to 'go where they thought fit.

'Scooner from New-London, ---Truman Comma-'der, loaded with Sugar and Molaſſes from St. Euſtatia.

'His ſecond Cruize.

'Sloop --- Lightwood Commander, with Rum and 'Sugar from Barbados, fitted out by the Spaniſh Captain 'with two Carriage and two Swivel Guns, and thirty 'Men.

'Scooner Sarah, loaded with Salt for Maryland, Capt. 'North, which they ſunk.

'Ship Mercury, Capt. Clark which they run aground 'on the North Side of Cuba, the Veſſel worth 14000l. 'Sterling, loaded with dry Goods from London to 'Virginia.

'Ship Plymouth, Capt. Anthony from London to 'Virginia, re-taken by the Virginia Privateer.

'Brigt. Sarah, Thomas Smith, bound to Boſton from 'Barbados, with Rum, Sugar and Cotton, re-taken by 'us, but run away with by the Maſter.

'A fiſhing Boat taken off of Bermudas, which he 'gave to 32 Priſoners to carry them aſhore there.

Dec. 10. A Scooner belonging to Mr. Eliery of Cape Ann, arriv'd laſt Week: ſhe was bound to Virginia; and in her Paſſage was taken by a Spaniſh Privateer, who took from her all her Cargo, excepting a Barrel of Sugar and two Hogſheads of Rum. The ſaid Privateer had taken three or four Engliſh Veſſels and put all the Engliſh Priſoners on board the Scooner, and gave her to the Maſter to go where he would.
